Dear President
Mrs. Lyudmyla Kolzlovska,

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Portugal refers to your letter dated 22 of June 2015 in which you requested public information about concrete steps undertaken by Portugal in order to implement the EU restrictive measures imposed on the Russian Federation.

According to Article 288 of the Treaty of Lisbon, European Regulations are binding and directly and immediately applicable in domestic law (as also stated in Article 8 of the Constitution of the Portuguese Republic). Therefore, EU Regulations that adopt restrictive measures are mandatory and directly applicable in the Portuguese legal order.

Decisions and Regulations concerning restrictive measures are public information and can be consulted at the website of the Official Journal of the European Union.

We hope you find this information of use.

Yours sincerely,

The Director General for Political Affairs

Rita Laranjinha
